

Derrick

As an elected Head boy at St Vincent's, I have taken my role seriously.

I would like to make the children of St Vincent's aware that through kindness and caring for others we can make others aware of our small school.

Every day I will strive to lead by example and help others 'to be the best that they can be'.