Newsletter No 38

Friday 8th July 2016

Dear Parents and Children,

Yesterday in school we had a visiting group from Firehouse Productions in school to deliver an Esafety presentation to the children. It was reassuring to hear how much the children already knew about how to stay safe online.

This is what some of the children had to say about it:

Nella: It was really good because it was funny but there was a message.

Hailey P: It was interesting and I learnt lots.

Tomas: Don't arrange a meet up with someone you meet online because they can lie about who they are.

Skipping4Schools

On Tuesday 12th July, we have organised a Skipping 4 Schools event. Please make sure your child has their PE kit in school so they are able to participate.

SKIPPING4SCHOOLS IS COMING ON 12 July!

We have invited Sports Skipping for Schools to host an all day skipping coaching session when our children will have the opportunity to learn a range of skipping skills.

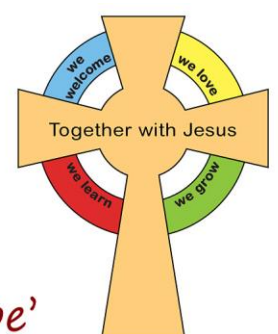

Sports Skipping for Schools Ltd.

Skipping on a regular basis will help to improve general levels of fitness and, along with the different skipping skills and challenges taught during the day, children will gain new found confidence in their own physical abilities.

Your skipping coach will work with classes of children throughout the day, introducing a variety of skipping skills as well as teaching the power of perseverance! These classes will offer the opportunity to learn something new while still having lots of fun, whether they are beginners or more advanced skippers. We hope that the children will have a great day and will also continue to improve their skills at home as well as at school.

The skipping ropes that the children will be using, are going to be on sale at home-time on the day and for a further period at a special discounted price of £4.00 each; they do cost more via the company website. For parents who may be interested in skipping with their children, which is great encouragement for the child as well as an easy way to exercise at home, adult ropes are also available at a cost of £5.50 each. Ropes will be on sale for 2-3 weeks after the event, please ask at the school office.
