Newsletter No 7

Friday 16th October 2015

Dear Parents,

It was such an exciting and emotional start to the day today, when we were finally able to welcome Mathew Letts back to school following a very long illness.

Matthew's family are very grateful to all of you for your prayers and support over the past months. The staff and children are absolutely delighted that he is back where he belongs with his school family.

Black History Month

Last Friday the children watched a drama presentation in which one lady took the children on a journey through time, exploring the lives and achievements of influential black people over time.

This is what the children had to say:

"It was fascinating watching the production. I liked Walter Tull the footballer who became a soldier." Andy Y6

"She made it interesting and fun to watch." Maya Y6

"I learned about lots of characters in Black History who helped to make things equal between black and white people." Tutu Y6

Uniform

Please can I take this opportunity to remind you about two aspects of our uniform policy:

1. Trainers are not allowed, black school shoes should be worn.
2. The red cardigan or jumper should be of a knitted material and not a sweatshirt material.

I have asked all staff to send out a reminder letter if the incorrect uniform is worn, so if you are unsure please come to check with one of us.
