Dear Parents,

World Book Day Celebrations

Our book week celebrations have continued into this week after being interrupted by the snow. The children all looked amazing dressed as their favourite book characters today. I hope the parents who came along as 'surprise readers' enjoyed it. A huge thanks to the PTA for setting up the Book Nook in the hall; all classes have really enjoyed spending time in that colourful, magical space.

Book Fair

We had to re-book our book fair. It will now be here with us from 19th – 25th April. The book fair will still be able to accept your World Book Day £1 vouchers, or you can take them into a book shop to exchange them for one of the special books (see details on the voucher).

Maths Workshop

Due to unforeseen circumstances the Maths Workshop on Wednesday 21st March has been postponed. Sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.

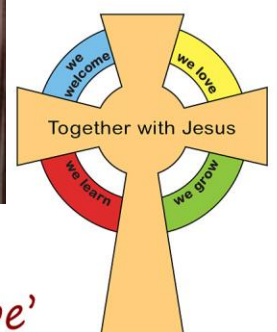

Santathon

The postponed Santathon Fun Run has now been re-scheduled for Sunday 25th March beginning at Dagenham and Redbridge Football Club at 11am. Mrs Scott will be there, running the 5K Santathon for St Francis Hospice. This is a family event. The 5K can be walked in around an hour. Adults, Children, babies and even dogs can take part for this worthy cause.

If you already signed up for the December date, don't worry - you're now automatically registered to take part on Sunday 25th March.

If you would like to sign up please book now! It's sure to be a memorable one. A Santa fun run in the middle of spring means you get to extend the festive period for a little bit longer! If you are unable to participate you can still support St Francis Hospice by sponsoring Mrs Scott.
