Newsletter No 11

Friday 24th November 2017

Dear Parents and Children,

Visit from PC Grainger

On Tuesday Year 5 and Year 6 had a visit from PC Grainger. The theme was 'Choices and Consequences'.

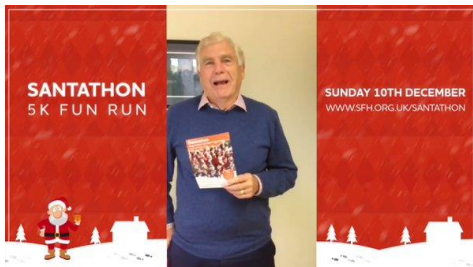

'PC Grainger shared her role in the police and some of her experiences.' -Tochi

'PC Grainger introduced us to policing. She talked about different crimes and we learnt how we should deal with different things such as bullying and stealing.' - Kamsy

Visit from Frankie the Lion and Saint Francis Hospice

This morning, Frankie the Lion visited us from Saint Francis Hospice with Linda to promote the forthcoming 5K Santathon which is taking place on Sunday 10th December. This afternoon, all children will be bringing home further details about this local family event. The 5K can be walked in around an hour. Adults, children, babies in buggies and even dogs are able to take part, so I do hope many of you will be able to join in. Santa suits are provided on the day, so I look forward to seeing you all dressed as Santa.

Parish Bazaar Sunday 3rd December

On Sunday 3rd December, the Parish will be holding their annual Christmas Bazaar in the school hall. To support this Parish event, we have been kindly asked to bring in donations of bottles for the bottle tombola stall. These can be bottles of juice, squash, wine, or spirits etc. Donations can be brought into school any day next week. Please send in all bottles by Friday 1st December. Thank you in advance for your support.
