Newsletter No 33

Friday 25th May 2018

Dear Parents and Children,

Well done to Year 3 who attended a dance rehearsal yesterday at the Jim Peter's Stadium. Their behaviour was exemplary and they remembered every sequence of the complicated routine. Thank you also to Miss Manios and Mrs Heather for all their hard work, practising the routine with them.

Woodland Creatures visit St Vincent's.

On Tuesday, St Vincent's received a visit from two Woodland Creatures because we had the highest percentage of children having a school meal on Census Day. The children really enjoyed their visit.

Well Done to our Workers of the week

Author Visit

On Wednesday, Nursery, Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 had a visit from a celebrated author called Winnie. Her latest book is called "London Hat Hunting Mission" which is about four little Londoners' exploring cultural diversity in the city of London.

'I loved it when she put the hats on. I liked the furry black hat' –Scarlett (Reception)

'We looked at the book and the lady had different dolls.' –Tyler (Reception)
