Newsletter No 12

Friday 30th November 2018

Dear Parents and Children,

Anti-bullying week 26th – 30th November

This week has been Anti- Bullying Week at St Vincent's. The theme is 'We choose RESPECT'. It began on Monday with an inspirational assembly and drama workshops for all classes.

Grace (Y6): 'I learnt that bullying can happen online and I shouldn't communicate with strangers. If someone says something online or by text I don't like, I should not respond, take a screen shot and report it.'

Louis (Y6): 'If someone else is being bullied that you shouldn't sit back and watch, you should be an upstander and if they are too worried you can go with them to report it.'

Today we have had 'ODD SOCKS DAY' to highlight the importance of this week. Thank you to everyone who took part.

Parish Christmas Bazaar Sunday 2nd December (10am-3pm)

On Sunday 2nd December, the Parish will be holding their annual Christmas Bazaar in the school hall. Thank you to everyone who sent in bottles today for the Bazaar. I am looking forward to seeing you all there!

Well Done to our Workers of the week!
